

Weeping Willow: Welcome to River Bend Hits #10 on Barnes and Noble's Bestsellers' List

On Monday, June 12th, 2006, Weeping Willow: Welcome to River Bend, the satirical novel by Geoff Hoff and Steve Mancini, reached #10 on Barnes and Noble's bestsellers' list.

Weeping Willow is a comedic soap opera about Lee Harris, a hapless accountant from Chicago, who discovers his wife has fallen in love with another man, packs his life into an SUV and leaves town. He finds himself stranded in a quirky town called River Bend where he is forced to re-examine everything as he starts over.

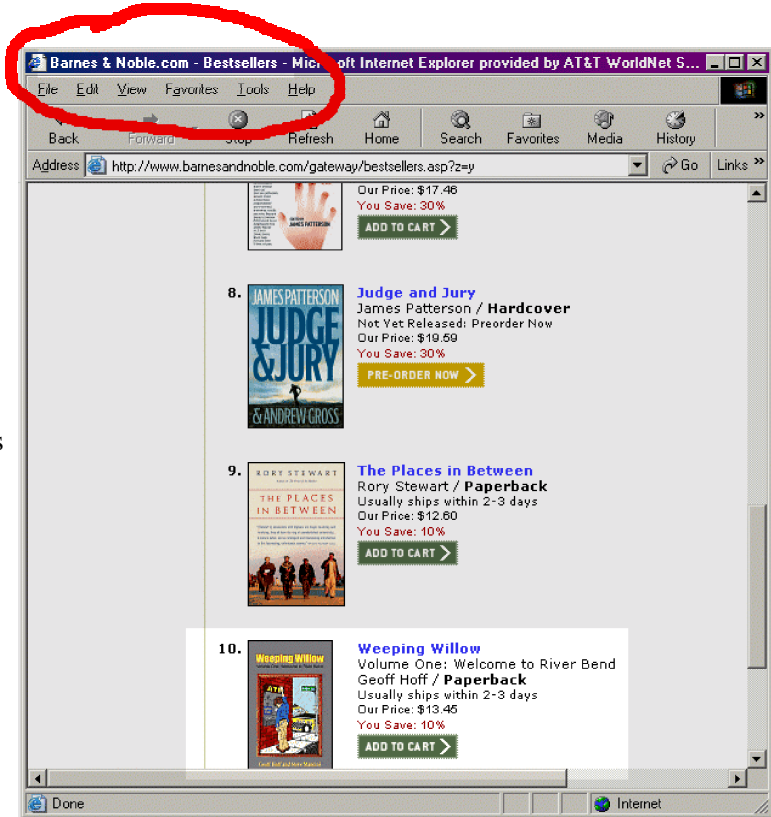

Weeping Willow started as an on-line satirical serial that drew fans from all over the world, and was then self-published as a print-on-demand book through AuthorHouse.

Geoff Hoff and Steve Mancini have been writing together for over eight years. They have collaborated on screenplays, television shows and stage shows.
